

A Great Day to Fiesta!

More photos from this year's 5th Annual Hispanic Heritage Fiesta held on September 16th in Siler City.

Volunteers Claudia Yatzkan, Yeimi Tomas, Odaly Rivas, and Diana Marquez (left to right) made the trip from Chapel Hill where they attend school at UNC. Mil gracias to all our wonderful volunteers! (Photo: Nora Haenn)

Voluntarios Claudia Yatzkan, Yeimi Tomas, Odaly Rivas, and Diana Marquez llegaron de Chapel Hill donde asisten la universidad. ¡Mil gracias a todos los voluntarios maravillosos!

A family enjoys one of the day's traditional dance performances. Dance troupe Magetsi 4H Club of Sanford and Takiri from Durham were two of the groups performing traditional Latin American folk dances. (Photo: Nora Haenn)

Una familia apreciando un baile tradicional. Los Magetsi 4H Club de Sanford y Takiri de Durham eran dos de los grupos que expusieron su obra.

Lorenia Yllaramendy, a Visiting International Faculty at Siler City Elementary, and Julia Herbón, Lead ESL Instructor at CCCC, pose before displays celebrating the unique traditions of Latin America's countries. Art work from Siler City students hangs in the background. (Photo: Nora Haenn)

Lorenia Yllaramendy, Visiting International Faculty en Siler City Elementary, y Julia Herbón, Instructor Principal en el programa de ESL en CCCC frente una de las mesas celebrando las tradiciones únicas de varios países Latinamericanos. Dibujos de alumnos de Siler City Elementary se ven al fondo.

Representatives from agencies ranging from the Chatham County Library to the Vidas de Esperanza free health clinic to the Chatham County Sheriff's Department were on hand. Here, Siler City police officer and firefighters enjoy some of the great food on offer. (Photo: Nora Haenn)

Representantes de agencias como Chatham County Library, Vidas de Esperanza (una clínica de salud), y las oficinas del Sheriff se presentaban. Aquí, policía y bomberos de Siler City disfrutaban de la comida sobrasa que se ofrecía.

More than 600 people participated throughout the day visiting information booths and vendors in the two blocks of downtown Siler City closed off for the event.
(Photo: Nora Haenn)

Más que 600 personas participaron. Visitaron agencias ofreciendo información y vendedores de varios tipos. Se cerraron dos manzanas en el centro de Siler City para hospedar el evento.